Let's increase this number this year and share God's word with the women and children of Pakistan during Inspiration Day in October 2009. Please give your contribution to the elders, Louise White or Shirley Walters and designate "Bibles for Pakistan". The preschool Bible classes will be collecting coins to help with this effort. Parents, please encourage your young children to share their allowance with this effort.

Mission Update Eastern European Mission

Last year's $1,000,000 Sundays purpose was to put Bibles as Biblical literature in all 1,118 public schools in the state of Donetsk, Ukraine. By the last week of May, the majority of the schools in the state had received their Bibles with just a few schools left to go in the city of Donetsk (which is the capital of the state of Donetsk). The reports are that the schools enthusiastically received the materials and the teachers are planning on using the materials. Our Mission fund has started supporting EEM with $200 per month. For further information, please go to www.EEM.org. Please continue to pray for this, and all our Mission work.

Mission Update Ashley Thompson

Dear Woodstock Congregation, Thank you so much for supporting me in my mission trip to Brazil. It truly was an amazing opportunity being able to experience mission work in a less fortunate country like Brazil. The mission was a success and I am including some pictures of our work there [posted on the Mission board in the foyer]. We invited thousands of people to church and conducted many Bible studies. Thanks again.

WEEKLY

Vol. 17 No. 30

July 26, 2009

Welcome to the Lord's church that meets at Woodstock, Georgia. We find our authority in the inspired word of God and are governed in organization, faith, worship and work according to God's Holy Word.

A Note From Bryan... Inspiring and Influencing Christian Values

Inspiring and Influencing Christian values is something we do through modeling and teaching. Our behavior is something that must match our words. Our behavior must reflect our values. The New Testament teaches us that when we act inconsistent with the Scriptures we open the door to blasphemy (Romans 2:24; 1 Timothy 6:1; Titus 2:5; 1 Peter 4:14; 2 Peter 2:2). When we use foul language, tell dirty jokes, lie, steal, or any number of common behaviors we let others know that our faith is not very important and people around us begin to think that the Christian life is ineffectual.

The enemies of the cross are looking for opportunities to prove that you are not what you claim to be. The enemies of the cross look for every opportunity to prove God is a myth and that Jesus can't save you. The enemies of the cross search vainly to disprove the Bible as the word of God. Christians must do a better job of teaching and modeling biblical values.

Luke 6:11 says that Jesus' enemies, who preferred darkness over the light He brought into this world (John 8:12), were "filled with rage and discussed with one another what they might do to Jesus." While all this was going on in the background, verses 12-49 tells how Jesus kept right on doing good works, inspiring and influencing the values of the people. There were three essential things we can notice Him doing that we can repeat today to inspire and influence the values of men today.

The first was that Jesus chose 12 men to be specially trained messengers for God. We must continue to find those with a passion for the word and send them out to preach. Second, Jesus had a message that transformed the minds of men. People gathered from miles around to hear Jesus and to be healed by Him. We come together today to hear the message and be changed by it. Finally we see that Jesus taught things that were contrary to "conventional wisdom"; things that challenged the status quo and sought to create a new, hopeful perspective in those who needed it most.
